

Please read these instructions before submitting your abstract.

1. If you are submitting on behalf of others, note that you are who will receive all communication is accepted.
2. Please be sure to follow the Abstract Template Layout listed below for your abstract.
 - Failure to do so will result in an automatic rejection of the abstract.
3. You must pick one of the following Submission Groups when you upload your abstract. This cannot be changed at a later time so please ensure you know for yourself or the authors you are submitting for which is preferred:
 - Manuscript to published paper (manuscript will be in the Symposium final proceedings)
 - Power point presentation only (Present only and no manuscript will be in the Symposium final proceedings)
4. Note that the approved file format to be loaded is a .PDF file

Abstract Template Layout:

Title – Note that long titles may be abbreviated or modified.

AUTHORS

Authors (use first and last name with no titles)

ABSTRACT

The abstract should not include procedures of the experiment but should provide a concise summary of the results, not exceeding 250 words and include a brief statement of objective(s).

AUTHOR PROFILE

The author profile should include education, major contributions in past, present duties and activities. The profile should not exceed 150 words per author.